

PUBLIC SUBMISSION

Docket: FCC-2015-0167

911 Call-Forwarding Requirements for Non-Service-Initialized Phones

Comment On: FCC-2015-0167-0001

911 Call-Forwarding Requirements for Non-Service-Initialized Phones

Comment on FR Doc # 2015-10472

Submitter Information

Name: joshua sampey

Address:

438 ne 39th ave

camas, WA, 98607

General Comment

Any phone needs to be capable and allowed to dial 911. This is a critical safety feature. The prevalence of cell phones means that help can be called quickly. Removing this feature is also disadvantage to the poor who may be able to get a phone to use on WiFi networks but can not pay for a phone plan through a wireless carrier. It is imperative that their phones still be able to call for help should the need arise.